

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,)
)	No. CR-07-171-FVS
Plaintiff,)
)	ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO
v.)	TRAVEL AND GRANTING IN PART
)	MOTION TO MODIFY RELEASE
ROBERT VAUGHN HARTWIG,)	CONDITIONS
)
Defendant.)

At the December 19, 2007, hearing on Defendant's Motion to Modify Release Conditions (Ct. Rec. 17) and Motion to Permit Travel (Ct. Rec. 14), Defendant was present with retained counsel Bryan P. Whitaker. Assistant U.S. Attorney Pamela J. Byerly represented the United States.

Both sides argued.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. Defendant's Motion to Modify Release conditions (Ct. Rec. 17) is GRANTED in part as follows:

a. Defendant may use a computer only as necessary for employment purposes and only following inspection of the hard drive by FBI prior to use. Pretrial Services shall confirm he does not have a laptop with a wireless connection or internet access at his home.

1 b. As stated in this court's Order filed December 12, 2007,
2 Defendant shall not frequent malls or any other place where
3 there may be minors present, but Defendant may be with his own
4 children.

5 2. Defendant's Motion to Travel (Ct. Rec. 14) is GRANTED.
6 Defendant may travel to Boise, Idaho, on December 23, 2007,
7 returning to Spokane no later than December 29, 2007. Defendant
8 shall provide Pretrial Services with the address and phone number
9 where he will be staying during his stay in Boise, and shall abide 10 by all release conditions while traveling. In addition, there shall 11 be no computers in the home where Defendant is staying in Boise, and 12 Defendant shall be in the presence of his spouse at all times.

13 DATED December 20, 2007.

14
15 S/ CYNTHIA IMBROGNO
16 UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28